

Level 4—Set A (Front)

| | | | |
|----------------------------------|--|------------------------------|------------------------------|
| world policing | making the world safe for democracy | forward-thinking progressive | bleeding-heart socialist |
| advocate of freedom and morality | narrow-minded extremist | racial profiling | identifying likely criminals |
| illegal alien | undocumented immigrant | terrorist | enemy insurgent |
| global warming hoax | clean energy campaign | social safety nets | welfare handouts |
| providing a path to citizenship | giving amnesty—a criminal pardon—to illegals | government relief program | government bailout |
| prisoner | detainee | gambling | investing |

Level 4—Set A (Back)

| | | | |
|---|---|--|--|
| someone who believes it is the government's job to protect civil rights and solve social problems | someone who believes it is the government's job to protect civil rights and solve social problems | when a country uses military force or negotiation to spread its own values to other countries | when a country uses military force or negotiation to spread its own values to other countries |
| when an authority figure (like a police officer or an airport security agent) stops, searches, questions, or arrests someone because of his or her race | when an authority figure (like a police officer or an airport security agent) stops, searches, questions, or arrests someone because of his or her race | someone who believes the government should let people solve their own issues | someone who believes the government should let people solve their own issues |
| someone who uses violence, fear, and intimidation to reach a political or ideological goal | someone who uses violence, fear, and intimidation to reach a political or ideological goal | someone who migrates to the United States and lives there without filling out the proper paperwork | someone who migrates to the United States and lives there without filling out the proper paperwork |
| when the government gives money to people with extremely low incomes | when the government gives money to people with extremely low incomes | movement to limit the effects of climate change by creating environmentally sustainable options | movement to limit the effects of climate change by creating environmentally sustainable options |
| when the government loans money to companies to prevent them from going bankrupt | when the government loans money to companies to prevent them from going bankrupt | offering undocumented immigrants legal status, work permits, and—eventually—citizenship | offering undocumented immigrants legal status, work permits, and—eventually—citizenship |
| to risk a certain sum of money in the hopes of earning more than you started with | to risk a certain sum of money in the hopes of earning more than you started with | someone who is confined or held in custody | someone who is confined or held in custody |