Student engagement happens as a result of a teacher's careful planning and execution of specific strategies. This basic premise drives The Highly Engaged Classroom, a self-study text that provides in-depth understanding of how to generate high levels of student attention and engagement. Using the suggestions in this book, every teacher can create a classroom environment where engagement is the norm, not the exception.

Benefits

- Read relatable classroom stories that depict the presented strategies.
- Gain exercises and end-of-chapter proficiency scales to help assess and reinforce understanding.
- Utilize an appendix that clearly explains the concept of effect size.
- Use an appendix of unusual information to help engage students in content.
- Discover an appendix of planning questions for implementing the presented strategies.

The Highly Engaged Classroom will give you specific, exciting, and fresh approaches to genuinely empower your students. The learner moves to the driver's seat as teachers equip them with tools to learn from feedback and navigate their future."

—Heidi Hayes Jacobs, executive director of the Curriculum Mapping Institute and president of Curriculum Designers, Inc., New York

Creating a Highly Engaged Classroom Workshop

Engage students deeply in the joy of learning. Create a lively, dynamic classroom in which students are excited to learn and have the drive to keep exploring until they succeed. This workshop explores the four questions behind student engagement and shows how to set the stage for positive answers to each of them:

1. How do I feel?
2. Am I interested?
3. Is this important?
4. Can I do this?

Learn how to lay a positive foundation that predisposes students to learn. Take home practical, research-based strategies to spark student interest and make learning personally relevant. Discover how to build the confidence that gives students ownership of their learning.

Learning Outcomes

- Gain sound instructional strategies for engaging students.
- Distinguish between short-term attention and deep engagement.
- Connect classroom goals to students' personal goals.
- Build your capacity to increase student achievement.
- Spark students' personal interest in learning.
- Nurture students' sense of self-efficacy.
