Becoming a High Reliability School Workshop

The Marzano High Reliability Schools™ (HRS) model is the product of over 40 years of educational research and development. This workshop will introduce teachers and leaders to the five levels of high reliability schools and explain concrete action steps to improve student achievement.

HRS Levels

- Level 1: Safe and Collaborative Culture
- Level 2: Effective Teaching in Every Classroom
- Level 3: Guaranteed and Viable Curriculum
- Level 4: Standards-Referenced Reporting
- Level 5: Competency-Based Education

Participants will be introduced to the leading and lagging indicators and critical commitments for each level and receive tools and resources to help them achieve high reliability status.

Learning Outcomes

- Explore the five levels of high reliability schools.
- Learn how to select leading and lagging indicators to address in your school
- Discover new ways to use collaborative teams to address common issues regarding curriculum, assessment, instruction, and achievement of all students.
- Contextualize the research on effective instruction and supervision practices to transform your organization into a high reliability school.
